Hello Honeybunch!

Just got my X Ray plate with the diagnosis of abscess. That sounds mighty encouraging, don't it? Shall see what the dentist has to say about it to-night.

Mom came home shortly after you left last night and was surprised to find that you had started for home. We fooled around for about an hour and then I went to-bed. My head aches a little to-day, which, because it is so rare, seems so terribly fierce awfully. I guess it will pass directly. We are not so busy to-day, thank goodness.

Wish that you were coming up to-night, 'cause I do so love to see you — to-morrow!! Yes!

Lovingly,
your wifie
